SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1875.

A Relie of the Past. Mrs. J. J. Barker sends us a copy of the Manitawaba Chronicle, the first padate of May 6th, 1871, and is No. 8 of the volume. Dr. Wm. P. Maiden, now located in Alpena, was the publisher. In size, it is about one-quarter that of the TRIBUNE, having three columns about ten inches long upon a page. The advertising patronage was extremely limited, the paper containing only one advertisement-that of Allen Cameron-and four business [cards-W. S. Humphrey with the Tribune, it shows that great improvements are sometimes made in four years. We believe that there has been as much improvement in this as in of Cheboygan.

The Queen City. We noticed last week that a schooner oaded with corn was ashore on Waugoschance Point. Her name was the Queen City. She was gotten off and towed into Duncan on Wednesday--after having been a large amount of corn had been thrown overboard, a portion of which was se-

Until recently fishing has been the principal business, but of late more attention is given to the cultivation of the soil. The soil as well as the water is made to contribute to the prosperity of the people. There are said to be about one hundred and forty families on the island. Large amounts of fish are shipped, Dormer & said, 1,200 packages per month during the fishing season.

Important to Lumbermen. We are informed by the Collector of Internal Revenue for this district, that all persons who sell tobacco at their logging camps, and other places, to men in their employ, or others, must make returns and pay tax as dealers in manufactured tobacco.
